

Hey there. I'm Melanie Fair and Windows 7 wasn't my idea. Right now I'm part time Lynden High School senior, part time Whatcom Community College student, and part time young adult novelist.
I'm somewhat legit in that last one; I self-published my first book this year
"Wolves

Among Sheep" and have a good six other ones finished. My dream is to be a full time author, but I'd settle for an editor or librarian or something. Just as long as I'm not crying myself to sleep every night from the horrible deadened job I'm working.
