

Hello, my name is Tessa Richardson and I'm a Junior at Lynden High School. Some things I enjoy doing are riding horse, (I ride a mix of everything from English to Western, Jump-reading to Trail riding) books, writing poetry, novels, and drawing. I love all things magical and paranormal, dragons and being fantastical- dragons And, a personal favorite. 'those NO, I am not one of those Twilight people' I hate Twilight. It's childish compared to what I read...and I apologize to those of you who like them...you have my pity. Anywho, dragons, unicorns, horses, pegasus, cerberus, Greek mythology. Story of my life. End of story, thank for listening. ^.^
