

Hi my name is Scott Hastings. I am a Freshman at Lynden high school. My favorite colors is blue and green. I was born in Bellingham, Washington. I have two older brothers that are both graduates from high school. There names are Ryan who is 22 and Jordan who is 20. My goal is to graduate high school and go to a university for a sport scholarship. I want to play football and basketball. I want to live in a nice tropical warm place. But right now i am stuck in the rainy, boring, cold city of Lynden, Washington. I work out!
