

Born June 16. Washington State. Has one sibling, a younger brother. Left-handed. Animation enthusiast. Wants to be a game developer. Currently studying German, Swedish, and Japanese.

Has an inexplicable fear of being upside-down. Spends too much time reading.

And playing video games.

And doodling. Basically a professional procrastinator. Listens to dorky indie music. Ravenclaw. Wasn't really into musical theatre until Hamilton came along. Thanks, Lin-Manuel Miranda.
