

Hey, my name is Diana Michelle Castillo. I was born in Upland, California, on January 23rd, 2001. I've lived in California, Mexico, and Washington. In all the places I've lived in, I met some pretty incredible people that have affected my life in some way. There's still people I haven't seen or talked to in years that I think about everyday. I've experienced and learned different things in each place that I've lived in. I am so thankful to have been to all these different places and to have met all these amazing people that I will never forget. When I was younger, everytime we moved, my Dad would tell me that the Universe always reunites old friends, I still think it's true. I know there are still plenty of people left for me to meet throughout my life, I can't wait to meet @@@.

My favorite music is anything from the 60's, 70's, and 80's. Some of my current favorite artists are Tame Impala, MGMT, Beach House, Concorde, Slowdive, etc. When I was a kid I thought the world before the 70's was in black and white because of the pictures and movies I saw. I want to learn how to speak Greek and Italian. I told myself that I can't die before I write a book and at least one song, even if no one ever gets to read or listen to them. A bird attacked me once. I was in Mexico when that happened. I prefer tea over coffee. I want to move to a different state or country when I graduate college. My favorite mythical creature is Cthulhu. I've seen a UFO, and at least two ghosts before. I haven't had a crush since the 5th grade, oops. I guess I've been a little too busy to develop any romantic feelings for anyone. Shout out to Julia one time for teaching me weird new things everyday. I like to think numbers are in weird relationships. Like 1 and 2 are married but it's dying. 3 loves 4, but 4 is in love with 5, and 5 likes 6 but doesn't know it yet. 6 and 7 are dating. 8 is kind of obsessed with 9, so 9 takes advantage of 8 to make him do anything she wants. 9 still isn't over her break up with 10. 10 is the most conceited and doesn't care about anyone but himself. I have no idea how I made this up. I really hope no one gets to read this.
