

Sterling has taken the world by storm.

Winning the coveted Lance Burton Award in Las Vegas in February of 2006 was just the start of his amazing rise in magic. This award gave Sterling the title as the World Teen Champion of Magic.

Sterling is a member of the prestigious Magic Castle, the International Brotherhood of Magicians, the Society of American Magicians, and also the Northwest Ring of Fire.

Now a junior at Lynden High School, Sterling has helped raise tens of thousands of dollars for benefits and charities. In 2007 he established and funded four scholarships for local high school students who have a passion for the performing arts. Sterling is a honor role student, and has been ranked in the top forty in the nation for his skills at chess.

So, sit back while Sterling entertains you with his energetic, fast-paced presentation! Using his skills in magic, dance, and a little bit of the bizarre, Sterling will have you at the edge of your seat. His passion for combining magic, music, and movement, has inspired him to create magical routines that will astonish, and amaze you. Are you ready for a magical time?
