

My name is Lianne Tjoelker. I am a junior at Lynden High School in Washington. I was born in Nanning, China and was adopted when I was eleven months old. My birthday is on June 17th. My favorite colors are red, black, and blue. My passion is the arts. I love to draw and write. I love music and I play the saxophone and the piano. I can also play clarinet. I write a lot of stories and I gather much of my inspiration from all of

My absolute genre is fan-
I also enjoy tion. I have been read-
relating to ture. My fa-

L T

my reading.
favorite tasy but science fic-
recently
ing more Chinese cul-
vorite authors are J.K. Rowling, Christopher Paolini, Da Chen, and Lawrence Yep. I also enjoy watching movies. I love listening to soundtracks and learning more about music composition. My dream would be to play in an orchestra for movies or for Broadway plays. I have yet to decide what I want to do in the future, but I know that I want to continue writing and to incorporate music into my life.