

hii :) my name is Alexandra Smith, but i prefer to be called Alexx... I am currently a freshman at Lynden High School. My all time favorite color is purple. I raise Friesian horses, right now i actually have 7 of them! They mean everything to me! My birthday is over the summer therefore i really want it to be summer time already! readyy! July 21st to be exact! But now i'm kind of depressed about it because yesterday i found out my friend Travis is going to still be in Germany on my birthday and doesn't get back until the next day :(I'm very jealous. However I'm going to Italy next fall so i guess that makes up for the jealousy a bit :D (Meagan is insanely envious!)
