

Hello everyone, my name is Wiebke Ketelsen. I was born and raised in Hamburg, Germany, a city on the river Elbe. To see another part of the world I decided to go during my 10th grade as an exchange student to America. Somebody thought I need to live now

love this

In a few

comes to

glad to

ily again

also sor-

this city.

everyone

this stay

great. I'm

active person

to annoy people.

I'm not playing soccer, tennis or hang out with friends I usually listen to music which is a big part of my life. I even used to play the trumpet but I couldn't take my grandpa's trumpet, that I got after his death, to America. When I come back home to Germany I'll start playing again.

get out of the big city and I in Lynden, Washington. I town, it is really awesome. weeks the year I spend here

its end. I'm
